USEFUL INFORMATIONS

HAT YAI

Few cities can match the excitement of Hat Yai. As commercial capital of southern Thailand, the city is a hive of activity with a wide range of attractions.

Being so close to Malaysia, shopping is Hat Yai's number-one draw. Great bargains can be found in the markets, bazaars and stores along Niphat Uthit 2 and 3. Clothing, batik and foodstuffs are popular buys.

Among the major sights is the sacred temple of Wat Hatyai Nai, the Museum of Southern Thailand and the crocodile farm. For those with more time, the beautiful Ton Na waterfall is well worth a visit.

Hat Yai is also famous for its dining and nightlife. Delicious Thai, Chinese and Malay food can be found all over town. And with numerous pubs, discos and coffee shops, you'll discover the city's fun-for-all reputation is well deserved.
